(“BB&B”), filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Chapter 11 Cases”). During the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors continued to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Chapter 11 Cases were procedurally consolidated and jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b).

8. On September 14, 2023, the Court entered the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order (I) Approving the Disclosure Statement on a Final Basis and (II) Confirming the Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Bed Bath & Beyond Inc. and its Debtor Affiliates [ECF No. 2172] (the “Confirmation Order”), confirming the Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Bed Bath & Beyond Inc. and its Debtor Affiliates [ECF No. 2160] (as amended, the “Plan”).

9. On September 29, 2023, the effective date of the Plan occurred (the “Plan Effective Date”). On the Plan Effective Date, the Plan Administrator became the sole representative of the Wind-Down Debtors, and all non-released Causes of Action of the Estates automatically vested in the Wind-Down Debtors. See Plan, Article IV, at § F. Under Art. Upon further information and belief, at all relevant times, Defendant’s principal place of business has been and is located at 1500 Watson Street, Loris, South Carolina 29569. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis, alleges that Defendant is a corporation residing in and subject to the laws of South Carolina.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

13. As more fully discussed in the Amended Disclosure Statement Relating to the Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Bed Bath & Beyond, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates (the “Disclosure Statement”),³ the Debtors were the largest home goods retailer in the United States, offering everything from bed linens to cookware to home organization, baby care, and more. At their peak, the Debtors operated over 970 stores across all 50 states and had additional operations spanning Canada, Mexico, and Puerto Rico.

14. As with many brick and mortar retailers, the Debtors were very negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. However, the twelve months prior to the Petition Date were the most difficult and turbulent in the Debtors' storied history. From "meme stock" mania to credit agreement defaults and back again, the Debtors explored various potentially value-maximizing alternatives in an effort to turn around their business and stave off chapter 11. In response to both macroeconomic factors and more specific business challenges, the Debtors' leadership formulated and attempted to implement a turnaround plan that was designed to refocus the business on its founding principles and restore consumer confidence. To that end, the Debtors secured credit agreement waivers and amendments and were able to access the equity markets in February and March of 2023 in a last-ditch effort to avoid bankruptcy. But, in store sales continued to decline—with fourth quarter sales falling by almost $1 billion dollars year over year—and strained vendor credit relationships which led to a lack of inventory. Ultimately, the Debtors were unable to service their funded debt obligations while simultaneously supplying sufficient inventory to their store locations.

15. As described in Article III, Section B.6 of the Plan, General Unsecured Claims comprise an impaired class of creditors and are not expected to be paid in full.

16. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors maintained business relationships with various business entities and individuals, through which the Debtors regularly purchased, sold, received, and/or delivered goods and services.

17. During the ninety (90) days before and including the Petition Date, that is between January 23, 2023, and April 23, 2023 (the "Preference Period"), the Debtors continued to operate their business, including the transfer of money, either by checks, cashier checks, wire transfers, ACH transfers, direct deposits or otherwise to various entities.

18. Upon information and belief, during the course of their relationship, Defendant and one or more of the Debtors entered into agreements for the purchase of home textiles from the Defendant, which are evidenced by one or more contracts, purchase orders, invoices, communications, and other documents, including an agreement dated February 21, 2018 (the “Damage Allowance Agreement”) and the Vendor Compliance Guide set forth as Exhibit A hereto (collectively, the “Agreements”). The Agreements concerned and related to the goods provided by Defendant to one or more of the Debtors as described in the “Parties” section of this Complaint. The Damage Allowance Agreement in particular sets forth the chargeback percentages to which the Debtors were entitled based upon damage allowances for damaged goods delivered to the Debtors, and in some cases, advertising allowances and volume of sales allowances. The damages claimed by the Debtors are set forth on the Damage Allowance Summary, which is attached hereto and incorporated by reference as Exhibit B. Such details include “Shipping Date,” “SKU Number,” “SKU Description,” and RTV Cost.”

19. Plaintiff is seeking to recover owed damage allowances, volume allowances, RTV’s, deductions, chargebacks and program monies pursuant to the Agreements.

20. During the course of this proceeding, Plaintiff may learn (through discovery or otherwise) of additional allowances and deductions the Debtors were entitled to under the Agreement. It is Plaintiff’s intention to recover all property of the Debtors in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and for the benefit of all creditors of the Debtors’ estates. Plaintiff reserves its right to amend this original Complaint to include: (i) further information regarding the damage allowances, deductions and rebates (ii) additional transfers, (iii) modifications of and/or revision to Defendant's name, (iv) additional defendants, and/or (v) additional causes of action, if applicable (collectively, the "Amendments"), that may become known to Plaintiff at any time during this adversary proceeding, through formal discovery or otherwise, and for the Amendments to relate back to this original Complaint.
